Scholastic's digital products do not contain surveys subject to the Protection of Pupil Rights Amendment. • State student IDs may be collected if the Division is using a third party rostering platform and opts to submit them. • Some products contain functionality for students to record themselves reading assigned text for purposes of literacy assessment and instruction. • With respect to "Communications" – some products contain limited in-app communication so that teachers can assign or give feedback on work. • Certain products such as Literacy Pro may collect or assess a student's reading level as indicated by one or more reading measure (by way of example only, such as Lexiles).
