VI. MONTANA PUPIL ONLINE PERSONAL INFORMATION PROTECTION ACT

In accordance with the Montana Pupil Online Personal Information Protection Act, pupil records continue to be the property of and under the control of the sSchool dDistrict. Contractor is prohibited from using any information in pupil records for any purpose other than those required or specifically permitted by this Agreement. Contractor is specifically prohibited from using personally-identifiable Protected in Information in pupil records to engage in targeted advertising.

By executing this Agreement, Contractor certifies that pupil Protected Information records will not be retained or available upon completion of the terms of the Agreement, so long as District does not have an active subscription with Contractor. Upon completion of the term of this Agreement and receipt of the District's written request, Contractor will provide written certification to the School District that pupil records Protected Information are no longer held, possessed or otherwise available to Contractor or its employees, agents, or subcontractors de-identified. This requirement does not apply to pupil generated content if a pupil chooses to establish or maintain an account with the third party for the purpose of storing that content.

Parents, guardians and eligible pupils have the right to inspect the personal information held by the Contractor. Parents, guardians, or pupils should submit to the school principal written request identifying the information they wish to inspect. The principal will make arrangements for access and notify the requesting party of the time and place the information may be inspected. Contractor will cooperate with the School District to accommodate any written inspection request within fifteen (15) business days of Contractor's receipt of said request. Contractor will release requested information to the School District. The rights contained in this section are denied to any person against whom an order of protection has been entered concerning a student.

Parents/guardians or eligible pupils may ask the School District to amend apersonal Protected information Information held by the Contractor they believe is inaccurate, misleading, irrelevant, or improper. They should write the school principal clearly identifying the part of the record they want changed and specify the reason. Contractor will cooperate with the School District to accommodate any written amendment request within fifteen (15) business days of Contractor's receipt of said request.

If the District decides not to amend the record as requested by the parent(s)/guardian(s) or eligible student, the District will notify the parent(s)/guardian(s) or eligible pupil of the decision and advise him or her of their right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the parent(s)/guardian(s) or eligible student when notified of the right to a hearing. Contractor shall not be liable for District's decision not to amend the record as requested hereinabove, and neither shall Contractor be liable for District's failure to give notice or information about hearing procedures.

Parents/guardians or eligible pupils may ask the School District to transfer possession of personal Protected information Information held by the Contractor to the pupil. Parents, guardians, or pupils should submit to the school principal written request identifying the information they wish to transfer. Contractor will cooperate with the School District to accommodate any written transfer request of Protected Information created in the use of Contractor's Services to a pupil's personal account, within fifteen (15) business days of Contractor's receipt of said request including providing options by which a pupil may transfer pupil generated content to a pupil's personal account.

Contractor designates its Director of Software Engineering and Contracts

as the primary employees responsible to ensure the security and confidentiality of pupil records. By signing this agreement, Contractor certifies that designated employees have completed training in pupil information security and confidentiality. Documentation of this training, including a summary of its scope, duration, and date of completion, will be provided to the School District upon written request. Compliance with this requirement does not, in itself, absolve the third party of liability in the event of an unauthorized disclosure of pupil records.

Contractor will immediately provide written notification to the School District within seventy-two (72) hours of any confirmed unauthorized disclosure of pupil information. Contractor will coordinate cooperate with the School District in its efforts to notify the parent, legal guardian, or pupil affected by an unauthorized disclosure of the pupil's records.

VII. CONFIDENTIALITY SAFEGUARDS:

Contractor will collect and use the School District's Data only for the purpose of fulfilling its duties and providing services_Services_under this Agreement, and for improving services_Services_under this Agreement.

If Contractor will have access to "education records" as defined under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (34 CFR Part 99), the Contractor acknowledges that for the purpose of this Agreement it will be designated as a 'school official' with 'legitimate educational interests' for the purpose of this Agreement. The Contractor agrees to and will use the data—Data only-solely for the purpose of fulfilling its duties under this Agreement. This Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Contractor may use de-identified Data for product development, research, or other internal purposes. De-identified Data will have all direct and indirect personal identifiers removed. This includes, but is not limited to, name, ID numbers, date of birth, demographic information, location information, and school ID. Furthermore, Contractor agrees not to attempt to re-identify de-identified Data.

Contractor is prohibited from mining the School District's Data for any purposes other than those agreed to by the parties. Data mining or scanning of user content for the purpose of advertising or marketing to students or their parents is prohibited. Using School District's Data for Aany and all forms of advertisement, directed towards children, parents, guardians, or District Employees will be strictly prohibited unless allowed with express written consent of the District. Contractor shall not use information to amass a profile about a pupil, except in furtherance of K-12 school purposes. Operators Contractor shall not sell a pupil's information to unauthorized third parties.

Contractor will not change how School District Data are collected, used, or shared under the terms of this Agreement in any way without advance notice to the School District. This Agreement is constitutes the entire agreement between the School District (including all District end users) and the Contractor. All other agreements or understandings, whether electronic, click through, verbal or in writing, with District Employees or other End Users shall be null and void. In the event that the Contractor enters into terms of use agreements or other agreements or understandings, whether electronic or click-through, with End Users, the parties agree that in the event of a conflict between the terms of any such agreement and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

Contractor will not share School District data Datai, with or disclose it to any third party, except to affiliated subcontractors, agents, or third-party service providers of the Contractor, without prior specific and informed written consent of the School District, except as required by law. Contractor will not post School District Protected Informationer specific student data to any searchable or publicly viewable website. School District will not post any of Contractor's Confidential Information to any searchable or publicly viewable website. Contractor shall not disclose protected Protected information Information unless the disclosure is made in accordance with School District policy, state or federal law, or with parent consent. Contractor shall implement and maintain reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature of the protected Protected information Information and safeguard that information from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification, or disclosure in accordance with School District policy and this Agreement.

School District Data will not be stored outside of the United States without prior, specific and informed written consent from the School District.

All—Any_goods, products, materials_, documents, reports, writings, video-images, photographs, papers and intellectual property of any nature including software or computer images that are part of the Contractor's proprietary intellectual property prepared by the Contractor (or subcontractors)—for the School District or from School District-provided material will not be considered the property of the District and will not be disclosed to any other person or entity and remains the property of the school system. The District will own any downloads of the teacher gradebook. All student-produced work remains the property of the school system or that eligible student. The Contractor has a limited, nonexclusive license to the data described herein solely for the purpose of performing its obligations as outlined in the Agreement. This Agreement does not give grant Contractor any rights, implied or otherwise, to Data, content_supplied_by_School_District, or School_District's_intellectual property, except as expressly stated in the Agreement, including any right to sell or trade Data.

Such qualifications are those abilities of an applicant for employment genuinely related to competent and satisfactory performance of Contractor's obligations under this Agreement. Contractor agrees and warrants that Contractor's hiring practices related to employees performing providing Services under this Agreement, as well as Contractor's practices related to promotion, retention, compensation, and other terms, conditions or privileges of employment, shall comply with all applicable laws, be nondiscriminatory, and such hiring, promotion, retention, and general employment practices shall not be based upon race, color, religion, creed, political ideas, sex, age, marital status, physical or mental disability, or national origin.

X. EMPLOYEE REQUIREMENTS: Intentionally Omitted

All employees of Contractor performing labor under this Agreement that have unsupervised access to students, including Contractor in the event that Contractor personally performs labor under this Agreement, shall be subjected to a name based and fingerprint criminal background investigation conducted by an appropriate law enforcement agency. Contractor shall provide to the District the results of such investigation for each employee (including Contractor) prior to any such employee performing any services under this Agreement. The District shall have the authority, in the discretion of the District Superintendent, to prohibit Contractor from permitting any such employee to perform services under this Agreement on the basis of information set forth in the results of a criminal background investigation.

XI. EMPLOYEE MISCONDUCT: Intentionally Omitted

All employees of Contractor (including Contractor) shall perform services under this Agreement in a professional manner, and shall, at all times while present on District property, behave in a manner appropriate to a school setting. Contractor shall discipline or terminate the employment of any of Contractor's employees performing services under this Agreement for engaging in any conduct inappropriate to a school setting, including, but not limited to, being under the influence or in possession of alcohol or any controlled substance while on District property; use of foul language; bullying or harassment of District students or staff; or such other conduct deemed inappropriate by the District. The District shall have the authority, in the discretion of the District Superintendent, to prohibit Contractor from permitting any employee to perform services under this Agreement based upon one or more instances of employee misconduct as described herein.

XII. TERMINATION PRIOR TO EXPIRATION OF CONTRACT TERM:

This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to expiration of the contract term by mutual agreement of the parties in writing. This Agreement may be terminated unilaterally by either party for cause or noncompliance with the terms, conditions, and requirements set forth herein, provided, however, that the noncompliant party shall first be entitled to a written demand for compliance and a reasonable opportunity to cure any noncompliance therein identified. Failure to cure any identified noncompliance within 20 days of receipt of written demand shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, and shall entitle the non-breaching party to immediately terminate this Agreement. All parties subject to a contract voided under this subdivision Contractor shall return—de-identify—all pupil records in its their possession—to the school district.

XIII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT, MODIFICATION, AND WAIVER:

This Agreement embodies the complete agreement of the parties hereto, superseding all oral and written previous and contemporary agreements between the parties. No alteration or modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless evidenced by a writing signed by the parties to this Agreement. A waiver of any term or condition of this Agreement or breach of this agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any other term or condition of this Agreement or any part hereof or of any later breach of this Agreement. Any waiver must be in writing each time a waiver occurs.

XIV. SAVINGS CLAUSE:

In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision thereof, and this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

XV. NOTICES:

All notices, consents, request, instructions approvals or other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and delivered by both email and personal delivery or regular U.S. mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of the party being provided such notice.

Any civil claim arising out of or related to the Agreement, or services Services provided under the Agreement, may be subject to mediation at the request of either party. School District and Contractor expressly agree that mediation shall not be a condition precedent to the initiation of any litigation arising out of such Colaims. Claims for injunctive relief shall not be subject to this Section. Any claim not resolved in mediation shall be subject to litigation in accordance with the laws of the State of Montana. Any litigation shall be conducted in Montana district court. Mandatory and exclusive venue for any disputes shall be in the county in which the School District is located. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement or in any document forming a part hereof, there shall be no mandatory arbitration for any dispute arising hereunder. The parties may mutually agree in writing to submit a dispute to arbitration, but the default dispute resolution shall be litigation. Contractor stipulates that the School District is a political subdivision of the State of Montana, and, as such, enjoys immunities from suit and liability provided by the Constitution and laws of the State of Montana. By entering into this Agreement, the School District does not waive any of its immunities from suit and/or liability, except as otherwise specifically provided herein and as specifically authorized by law. In any adjudication under this Agreement, reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees may be awarded to the prevailing party. The parties acknowledge that, as a public entity in the State of Montana, the School District and entities contracting with the School District must comply with the open records laws of the State.

XVII. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY:

Neither of the parties shall be liable to the other or any third-party for any special, consequential, incidental, punitive, or indirect damages, including but not limited to lost profits, lost royalties, goodwill, or cost of procurement of substitute goods or services, arising from or relating to any claim relating to this Agreement, whether such claim is based in contract, tort, or otherwise, even if the party has been advised of, or otherwise might have anticipated the possibility of, any such loss or damage. Provider's liability to the District for all claims arising out of this Agreement, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, will not exceed the amount the District paid to Contractor during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the date of the claim.
