EXHIBIT "A"
DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

STUDY DESCRIPTION

LFA is conducting an evaluation of the SJ Learns initiative. The initiative includes five school districts, and multiple schools within each district. Three elementary schools are included for OGSD: (Edenvale, Christopher, and Samuel Stipe). As part of this evaluation, LFA will report on information about student outcomes across all schools and districts included in the initiative. The Study is not meant to be a highly rigorous impact evaluation to test the effectiveness of the interventions in each district and school.

- The evaluation will share (at a school level and for OGSD as a whole):
 - o Aggregate demographic profiles (at the school level) of the students participating in the programs (gender, ethnicity, English language learner status).
 - o Descriptive aggregate information on local assessments done at the beginning and the end of the school year to see the progress made. Not all of the districts use the same assessments; OGSD uses iReady, and the evaluation will report on the first and third administration of that assessment.
 - o Descriptive information for third-grade outcomes for students participating in the SJ Learns-funded Extended Learning program during the 2016-17 school year. Specifically, the evaluation will share aggregate information on the SBA scores from spring 2017 (both level and scale scores).
 - o On SBA scores, a comparison between program participants and a match
- In order to provide a reference point for the descriptive information regarding SBA scores, the evaluation will also show a comparison between program participants and a matched comparison group of non-participating students. Within each district, the comparison group will be developed differently, depending on how participants are chosen. For OGSD, all students are considered broadly eligible (because the target population is third-graders from low-income families, and the school populations tend to be low-income). However, teachers also refer to the programs the students whom they feel could benefit most. For this reason, non-participants at the schools in the program are likely to be fundamentally different at baseline from participants, and thus not a good comparison group. To develop a more comparable group, LFA will draw from comparable schools where the program is not being implemented. Schools under consideration are Deliver Roble, Miner, and Park View. LFA will not make the final decision about the schools from which to draw comparison students until the team has had a chance to view the data.

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES, cont'd

Article V, Section 1a of this Data Privacy Agreement stipulates that: “All employees with access to Student Records shall pass criminal background checks.” LFA will not be in compliance with that provision of the contract, due to the fact that LFA is located in San Francisco, and is currently in compliance with the Office of Labor Standards Enforcement’s “Fair Chance Ordinance” stipulating that employers are prohibited from asking employees about arrest or conviction records. Due to the Fair Chance Ordinance, LFA has a policy of not conducting criminal background checks.

The Ordinance is included in the following page of this addendum.

Employers with 20+ Employees Must Post This Notice for Applicants and Employees

CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

EDWIN M. LEE, MAYOR

OFFICIAL NOTICE TO JOB APPLICANTS AND EMPLOYEES

Fair Chance Ordinance

Police Code, Article 49

Starting August 13, 2014, the Fair Chance Ordinance (San Francisco Police Code, Article 49) requires employers to follow strict rules regarding the use of arrest and conviction records in hiring and employment decisions. The ordinance covers job applicants and employees who would be or are performing work in whole, or in substantial part, in San Francisco and applies to employers who have 20 or more employees (regardless of the employees' locations).

Certain matters are off-limits. An employer may never ask about, require disclosure of, or consider: an arrest not leading to a conviction (other than an unresolved arrest that is still undergoing criminal investigation or trial); participation in a diversion or deferral of judgment program; a conviction that has been expunged or made inoperative; any determination in the juvenile justice system; a conviction more than 7 years old; and a criminal offense other than a felony/misdemeanor. Matters that are off-limits cannot be used by the employer for any reason at any stage of the hiring process.

An employer cannot ask about an individual's conviction history or unresolved arrests at the start of the hiring process. This includes through a job application form, informal conversation, or otherwise.

A mandatory interactive process for matters not off-limits. Only after a live interview has been conducted, or a conditional offer of employment made, is the employer allowed to ask about an individual's conviction history (except as to matters that are off-limits) and unresolved arrests. Only those convictions and unresolved arrests that directly relate to the individual's ability to do the job may be considered in making an employment decision.

Before the employer may take an adverse action such as failing/refusing to hire, discharging, or not promoting an individual based on a conviction history or unresolved arrest, the employer must give the individual an opportunity to present evidence that the information is inaccurate, the individual has been rehabilitated, or other mitigating factors. The individual has seven days to respond, at which point the employer must delay any adverse action for a reasonable time and reconsider the adverse action. The employer must notify the individual of any final adverse action.

Evidence of rehabilitation include satisfying parole/probation; receiving education/training; participating in alcohol/drug treatment programs; letters of recommendation; and age at which the individual was convicted. Mitigating factors include coercion, physical or emotional abuse, and untreated substance abuse/mental illness, that contributed to the conviction.

Preemption. Where federal or state law imposes a criminal history requirement that conflicts with a requirement of the Fair Chance Ordinance, the federal or state law will apply.

No Retaliation. An employer may not take an adverse action against an applicant or employee for exercising their rights under the ordinance or cooperating with the Office of Labor Standards Enforcement (OLSE). If you need more information, or wish to report an employer that you believe has violated this ordinance, please contact the OLSE at 415-554-5192 or email FCE@sfgov.org.
